SADLER'S REVIEW
(SADLER RESTAURANT, 2 STARS MICHELIN IN MILAN)

Costa dei Rosmarini
È un olio ligure, tra i preferiti da Sadler per la fragranza, la delicatezza e la armoniosità. L'acidità è bassissima e il profumo è intenso. È adatto per condire il pesce più delicato, in genere quello bianco, accompagnato da verdure in foglie, il pesce bollito a vapore e il carpaccio di pesce crudo.

Costa dei Rosmarini - It's an oil from Liguria, among the favourites of Sadler for its fragrance, delicacy and harmony. Acidity is very low and perfume is intense. It is right to dress the most delicate fish, generally the white one, coupled with vegetable in leaves and also the steamed fish and the raw carpaccio of fish.

ESPERYA.COM REVIEW

We found Costa dei Rosmarini really exceptional. Surprisingly and pleasantly savoury, it has just the right balancing consistency. Its aroma has a delicacy that reflects the terrain of its origin, and is at the same time complex, unfolding in a crescendo that finds a perfect match on the palate, with a classic note of sweet artichoke on the finish.

L'olive d'or
Jamais, au Québec, un produit alimentaire n'a été aussi populaire que l'huile d'olive. Et celle non filtrée de la famille Rosmarino continue de faire monter le niveau d'excellence. Fruitées, douce, avec des touches d'amandes, d'artichaut et de foin frais, elle mérite amplement son foudreau d'or. (Dans les épicerie fines.)

COSTA DEI ROSMARINI (100% Ligurian olive oil) is known to be more delicate than other olive oils, and Costa dei Rosmarini is a great example of this style. Extremely subtle, with notes of green, hazelnut almond, lime, and pear. It's excellent on simple pasta and fish dishes, swathing them in its deliciously gentle flavor without overwhelming them. www.deanddeluca.com
